

Sage Dutcher

Capable hands. Curious mind. Warm heart.

Marysville, Washington
(360) 502-0912
sagedutcher@gmail.com
Personal site: oakmoot.gg

Practical experience across independent field service, aircraft hydraulics, deliveries, inventory and team leadership. Looking for work where I can contribute that experience, take responsibility and keep learning.

Washington based. Open to U.S. travel, relocation and seasonal or longer-term work.

WHAT I BRING

Independent field assignments
Equipment troubleshooting
Customer service
Supply and inventory work
Scheduling and purchasing
Staff training and leadership
Comfort with computers

CURRENT CREDENTIALS

Class B CDL
Tanker endorsement
Food-safety training

CPR and hazmat are not current.
Willing to renew them for a role.

ADDITIONAL BACKGROUND

Past forklift and crane training.

Personal projects include a custom liquid-cooled computer and my website, developed with AI assistance.

SELECTED EXPERIENCE

Traveling Propane Service

Installed and inspected propane systems and gas piping. Completed nationwide travel assignments, handling unfamiliar routes, service work and expenses independently.

Aircraft Hydraulics | Military Service

Senior Airman. Three years working on KC-135 aircraft, including an eight-month deployment. Followed technical procedures and worked in demanding conditions.

Gas Delivery | Industrial and Medical

Delivered industrial and medical gases to customers. Worked with supplies that required careful handling and clear communication.

Treatment-room Support | Clinical Care

Reset and restocked treatment rooms before and during COVID, keeping supplies available for incoming patients.

Kitchen Leadership | Senior Living

Progressed from dishwasher to head cook, serving 100 seniors three meals a day. Spent a year as culinary director at another senior living community, managing staffing, schedules, purchasing, menus and budgets while cooking and training staff.

Store Management and Sales

Managed day-to-day retail work and helped customers understand their options through attentive listening and direct communication.